Team Presentation:

- present your team and the selected course project:

    - team name and logo,

    - team members and their personal motivation

- answer the following question:

    - How well will your team make use of complementary skills?

    - How well have you specified roles and responsibilities?

    - How efficient will be the team's communication?

    - How flexibly will the team react to changing circumstances?
